

CBS TELEVISION NETWORK
PUBLIC AFFAIRS BROADCASTS
JUNE 1999 - p. 1 of 7

FACE THE NATION

- 06/06/99      1)      Interview with White House Chief of Staff John Podesta about:
                 a) terms of an agreement with Serbia/number of Serbian troops to be allowed to return to Kosovo
                 b) proposed budget meeting between Congress and the White House
                 c) President Clinton's Medicare plan
                 d) proposed gun legislation
                 2)      Democratic and Republican viewpoints on: reaching a budget compromise; negotiations with Serbia; dealing with Slobodan Milosevic as a war criminal
                 3)      Interview with Jimmy Breslin about Hilary Clinton as a possible
                 Senatorial candidate from New York State
                 Guests:
                 John Podesta, White House Chief of Staff (1)
                 Sen. Don Nickles (R., Oklahoma) (2)
                 Sen. Joseph Biden (D., Delaware) (2)
                 Jimmy Breslin, columnist Newsday (3)
- 06/13/99      1)      Interview with Gen. Wesley Clark about the situation in Kosovo:
                 a) Russian occupation of the airport at Pristina
                 b) establishing a unified command under NATO
                 c) the departure of Serbian troops/return of Albanians
                 2)      George W. Bush's presidential campaign
                 3)      Showdown in Congress over gun control: mandatory background checks at gun shows/child safety locks
                 Guests:
                 Gen. Wesley Clark, NATO Supreme Commander (1)
                 John Harwood, Political Editor, Wall Street Journal (2)
                 Gov. Frank Keating (R., Oklahoma) (2)
                 Rep. Asa Hutchinson (R., Arkansas) (3)
                 Rep. Carolyn McCarthy (D., New York) (3)
- 06/20/99      1)      Vice President Al Gore's Presidential campaign/the impact of Hillary Clinton's anticipated run for the Senate
                 2)      Interview with Sen. Tom Daschle about the defeat of the Senate gun control bill/Hillary Clinton's Senatorial candidacy/HMO reform
                 3)      Interview with Steve Forbes about his Presidential candidacy/his stand on the issues
                 Guests:
                 Jack Quinn, Adviser to Al Gore (1)
                 Ceci Connally, The Washington Post (1)
                 Sen. Tom Daschle (D., South Dakota) (2)
                 Steve Forbes, Republican Presidential candidate (3)
- 06/27/99      1)      President Clinton's Medicare reform plan:
                 a) the universal coverage of prescriptions
                 b) efforts to make Medicare more cost efficient
                 2)      The formation of a doctors' union limited to doctors employed by someone else including hospitals and HMOs
                 Guests:
                 Donna Shalala, Secretary of Health and Human Services (1)
                 Sen. Phil Gramm (R., Texas) (1)
                 Sen. Bob Graham (D., Florida) (1)
                 Dr. Nancy Dickey, President, American Medical Assn. (2)

60 MINUTES

- 06/06/99      "The Best Of Intentions"- 25 years ago Bangladesh, devastated by floods and its war for independence from Pakistan, faced a serious health crisis -- diseases caused by dirty water were killing millions. It has since been discovered that hand pumped wells installed throughout the country by UNICEF and the Bagladeshi government as part of a safe water program, were poisoned by arsenic which occurs naturally in the ground and is a known carcinogen. (C: Christiane Amanpour - P: Andrew Tkach)
"The Maverick From Arizona"- an interview with Senator John McCain (R., Arizona), whose movement for campaign finance reform has put him into the spotlight as a possible Presidential candidate. (C: Mike Wallace - P: Tom Anderson) (OAD: 10/12/97)
"The China Connection"- a report on allegations that the Clinton Administration received illegal campaign contributions from the Chinese in return for easing restrictions on U.S. exports of high technology to them. Includes interviews with: Prof. Gary Milhollin of the University of Wisconsin; Undersecretary of Commerce William Reinsch; and Dr. Peter Leitner, a defense analyst. (C: Steve Kroft - P: Richard Greenberg) (OAD: 06/07/98)
Andy Rooney Topic: "Labels" - ingredients in food (OAD: 01/24/99)
- 06/13/99      "The Sins of the Father and the Mother?"- examines the legal implications of a civil law suit involving Marsha Norskog whose daughter was murdered by 17-year-old Steven Pfiel. The Chicago woman is suing the boys' parents for unspecified damages, charging that they too were responsible because they were negligent as parents who did nothing to protect the community from their son. (C: Morley Safer - P: Deirdre Naphin) (OAD: 04/05/98)
"To Be Or Not To Be"- a report on the problems faced by young people who tell their parents that they are homosexuals and the controversy over whether homosexuality can be reversed. Includes interviews with parents of gay children; John Paulk, a former gay male prostitute who claims that counseling he received at Exodus International, enabled him to change his lifestyle; and Doug Upchurch who says that he is still a homosexual despite efforts to change. (C: Lesley Stahl - P: Evalyn Lee) (OAD: 03/01/98)
"Insanity?"- an interview with Wendell Williamson, a mentally ill student at the University of North Carolina who fatally shot two people. Williamson sued his therapist, claiming that the psychiatrist was responsible for the murders because he let Williamson, a paranoid schizophrenic, believe that he could stop taking his anti-psychotic medication. A jury awarded him $500,000. (C: Ed Bradley - P: Michael Radutzky) (OAD: 11/15/98)
Andy Rooney Topic: "Mannerisms" - of TV newsmen (OAD: 11/15/98)
- 06/20/99      "The $353 Million Con"- Ed Reiners and John Ruffo were able to borrow millions of dollars from banks, claiming that they were buying computers for Philip Morris' top secret Project Star, a study of smokeless cigarettes and cause-and-effect of smoking on humans. When the scheme was uncovered, Reiners confessed and was sentenced to more than 16 years in prison. Ruffo pled guilty to fraud but managed to escape and is still at liberty. (C: Steve Kroft - P: Richard Greenberg) (OAD: 02/21/99)
"Juvenile Injustice?"- 11-year-old Lacresha Murray was charged with killing a two-year-old girl who had been dropped off at her grandparents' day care center. The girl who was held for days without a parent or lawyer until authorities got a confession that they used to convict her of criminally negligent homicide. (C: Mike Wallace - P: Walt Bogdanich, Frank Koughan) (OAD: 01/17/99)
"Genius"- an interview with Greg Smith, a nine-year-old genius who will soon graduate from high school and whose future career plans include medical research, politics and aeronautical engineering. (C: Ed Bradley - P: Amy Atkinson, Lisa Binns) (02/14/99)
Andy Rooney Topic: "Annoying Phone Calls" - sales calls (12/13/98)

60 MINUTES (continued)

06/27/99      "The Young And The Restless"- an interview with television writer Riley Weston whose scripts won critical claim until she admitted that she wasn't 19 but 32 years old. Includes interviews with Jenny Hontz, the TV editor of Variety and writer/producers Larry Gelbart and Dick Wolf who talk about the impact of 'ageism' on television. (C: Morley Safer - P: Catherine Olian) (OAD: 02/21/99)

"Smoke But No Fire"- for decades, Surgeon Generals have been saying smoking can kill you. The fact that smoking can also cause impotence has been known for years but not made public. Includes interviews with Dr. Cully Carson, Chairman of the Urology Department at the University of North Carolina and Dr. Randolph Smoak, head of the AMA. (C: Mike Wallace - P: Robert G. Anderson, Lisa Marantos) (OAD: 11/08/98)

"Slave Labor"- during World War II, the Nazi's war machine often depended in some part on the work of slave labor: the Poles, Jews, Russians and others forced to work -- and sometimes die -- in German factories. Almost 60 years later, survivors of the experience are suing some of Germany's biggest companies for compensation (C: Lesley Stahl - P: Shari Finkelstein) (OAD: 11/29/98)

Andy Rooney Topic: "Don't Disappoint Andy" - famous people making commercials (OAD: 01/03/99)

60 MINUTES II

06/02/99      "Deep Impact"- an investigation of accidents involving diving boards in backyard swimming pools which resulted in serious injury including paralysis. Shawn Meneely, a former athlete left a quadriplegic following a diving accident, sued the National Spa and Pool Institute which sets the standards for pool construction claiming that the organization knew that their standards were inadequate in terms of safety. (C: Dan Rather - P: Steve Glauber, Christopher Martin)

"The Boss"- an interview with George Steinbrenner, owner of the New York Yankees baseball team. (C: Charlie Rose - P: Linda Martin)

"A Few Good White Men"- a followup to "A Few Good White Men" (OAD: 60 MINUTES 10/31/93), a report on charges that black Marines officers are being held back from promotion and that overall advancement for them in the Corps is limited. The followup consists of updates on some of the Marines who were interviewed in 1993. (C: Lesley Stahl - P: Deborah De Luca Sheh)

"Uncommon Sense"- answering machines (C: Jimmy Tingle)

06/09/99      "No Hope For Parole"- a report on the controversy over Michigan's tough drug laws under which even first time offenders have been sentenced to life in prison without parole. Proponents say that it's the only way to keep drugs off the streets. Critics claim that the law, which has been modified to allow parole after 15 years, is both ineffective and unfair. (C: Dan Rather - P: Michael Rosenbaum, Jill Landes)

"Eggs.Com"- a report on companies including the Beverly Hills-based firm called Egg Donation Inc. which use the Internet to help infertile couples contact potential human egg donors. Prospective parents enter the characteristics they require...race, eye and hair color, height, etc., and instantly see a list of donors who match these requirements. (C: Gloria Borger - P: Harry Moses)

"Caitlin's Story"- a followup to "Caitlin's Story" (OAD: 60 MINUTES 11/08/92), a report on controversy which arose when doctors inserted a cochlear implant in the ear of Caitlin Parton, a six-year-old profoundly deaf child. The followup is an interview with Caitlin who is now 13. (C: Ed Bradley - P: Deborah DeLuca Sheh) (OAD: 01/27/99)

"Uncommon Sense"- the price of a postage stamps (C: Jimmy Tingle)

Update: "Unsafe Haven" OAD: 04/21/99

60 MINUTES II (continued)

- 06/16/99     "The Commandant"- Dinko Sakic, a World War II commandant allied with the Nazis is, at the age of 77, finally being brought to trial in Croatia for the deaths of 2,000 Serbs who perished in Jasenovac, the camp he commanded. Despite testimony to the contrary, Sakic still maintains his innocence. (C: Peter Van Sant - P: David Schneider)
"Cirque du Soleil"- a report on Cirque du Soleil, the global company which offers an unorthodox approach to producing circuses. The Montreal-based company founded in 1984 by three former Quebec street performers now employs 1,400 and last year netted $20 million in profit. (C: Bob Simon - P: Suzanne St. Pierre)
"Veronica Guerin"- a followup to "Veronica Guerin" (OAD: 60 MINUTES OAD: 02/02/97), about the murder of Veronica Guerin, a journalist with Sunday Independent, one of Ireland's largest newspapers, who wrote articles exploring Dublin's drug underworld. The followup is an interview with Paul Williams, a reporter for Dublin's Sunday World and a friend of Veronica Guerin; and an update on the Dublin Police Department's ongoing investigation of the crime. (C: Steve Kroft - P: Gail Eisen)
"Uncommon Sense"- Father's Day gifts (C: Jimmy Tingle)
- 06/16/99     "Unsafe Haven"- (special edition - 10:00-11:00p) - CBS News' year-long undercover investigation of Charter Behavioral Health Systems, the nation's largest chain of psychiatric hospitals, focuses on Charter's children's wards, where CBS found evidence of deaths, injuries and hospital falsification of medical records in institutions from Massachusetts to California. Charter has 91 hospitals in 32 states across the country, which admit about 60,000 children and adolescents every year and take in more than $300 million of taxpayer money annually. (C: Ed Bradley - P: David Gelber, Helen Malmgren) (OAD: 04/21/99 with an update)
- 06/22/99     "A Question Of Homicide"- medical examiner Dr. Ronald Reeves concluded through autopsy that 78-year-old cancer patient Mary Comford was given a lethal overdose of morphine in a Volusia County, Fla. hospice. Dr. Reeves who also discovered that the woman did not in fact have cancer, initiated an investigation of a total of 19 similar deaths and was subsequently suspended from duty. (C: Dan Rather - P: Charles C. Stuart)
"The Shame Of Srebrenica"- a report on the role of peacekeepers amid speculation that U.S. troops will be sent to Kosovo. Includes interviews with Dutch Army officers who were sent to protect the Muslims in Srebrenica. Outnumbered by the Serbs, the UN peacekeepers were unable to take effective action to stop the slaughter of countless civilians. (C: Bob Simon - P: Randall Joyce) (OAD: 03/10/99)
"Joyce Brown Is In Jail"- followup to "Joyce Ann Brown Is In Jail," (OAD: 60 MINUTES 10/22/89) a report on a Dallas woman serving a life sentence for robbery and murder who claimed that she was wrongly convicted. The followup is an interview with Ms. Brown who was released from prison and all charges have been dropped. (C: Morley Safer - P: Deborah De Luca Sheh) (OAD: 01/20/99)
"Uncommon Sense"- gun purchase waiting period (C: Jimmy Tingle)

60 MINUTES II (continued)

06/29/99      "Risky Business"- day trading is a method of investing by which anyone with a computer and the right software can buy and sell stocks. Problems arise because, although there is a potential for huge rewards, there is also a high risk. Includes an interview with Harvey Houtkin, who wants to open up electronic stock trading to everyone by means of his books and seminars on the subject. (C: Dan Rather - P Phil Shimkin) (OAD: 03/17/99)
"Mixed Company" - a report on the problems that arise when young, mentally ill, potentially violent patients are housed in nursing homes with the elderly. Includes interviews with Wendy Meltzer, an advocate for nursing home residents in Illinois; Charles Coburn, Illinois state attorney; and Dr. John Lumpkin, Director, Illinois Department of Public Health. (C: Jim Stewart - P: Andrew Wolff)
"Kieu My Thi"- followup to "Honor Thy Children," (OAD: 60 MINUTES 09/19/82) a report on the plight of children fathered by American servicemen during the Vietnam War who were left behind when the U.S. pulled out in 1975. The followup is an interview with one of these children, Kieu My Thi, now 23 and living with her family in Georgia. (C: Mike Wallace - P: Deborah De Luca Sheh, Barbara Demardt) (OAD: 01/13/99)
"Uncommon Sense"- the meaning of the Fourth of July (C: Jimmy Tingle)

48 HOURS

06/03/99      "A Family Accused"- focuses on cases where people accused of sexually abusing children were tried and imprisoned based on little real evidence other than the testimony of young children. Includes: a report on the Amirault family who ran the Fells Acre Day School in Malden, Massachusetts and whose careers and lives were ruined by seemingly unfounded charges; and an update on "Free My Family" (OAD: 04/03/97). (C: Susan Spencer - Sr. P: Reid Collins, Jr. - P: Gail Zimmerman, Jay Young, Brian O'Keefe) (OAD: 11/03/98)

06/07/99      "(MONDAY MYSTERIES) Dad's Double Life"- Fifteen years ago, after 15 years of a seemingly happy marriage, Elizabeth Welsh's husband, Patrick, left her and their two sons what appeared to be a suicide note and disappeared. Just last year, Elizabeth received a letter from the U.S. Government saying she owed them $66,000 because she had been mistakenly receiving death benefits. After investigating the situation, Elizabeth discovered that Patrick is still alive, living in Texas under the name Tim Kingsbury and using his social security number that matches his real identity. 48 HOURS followed this story to an Ohio courtroom, where Patrick was convicted of insurance fraud and non-support and sentenced to spend four years in prison and to make full financial restitution (C: Russ Mitchell, Harold Dow - Sr. P: Reid Collins, Jr. - P: Mary Noonan Robichaux, Alec Sirken) (OAD: 10/29/98 with an update)

48 HOURS (continued)

- 06/10/99      "Class of 2000: Driven To Extremes"- seeks context and perspective in the wake of the Columbine High School shooting in Littleton, Colorado and examines educational and societal measures that address youth violence in the Class of 2000 and beyond. The broadcast includes reports on: the Giddings State School outside Austin, Texas, where young criminals are treated with group therapy; Harry Lee Coe, Chief Prosecutor, Tampa, Florida who feels that juveniles charged with violent crimes should be tried in adult and given long, hard sentences; the shooting in Moses Lake, Washington, junior high school; Dr. William Pollack, a psychologist who feels that the fault lies in the way boys are being raised; survivors of the Littleton shooting; psychiatrist Dr. Daniel Amen who feels that violent behavior is caused by brain abnormalities; and a disaster that was averted at Burlington High School in Wisconsin. (C: Bernard Goldberg, Susan Spencer, Cynthia Bowers, Troy Roberts, Harold Dow - Sr. P: Reid Collins, Jr. - P: Tom Forman, Tim Clifford, Tanya Simon, Anthony Batson, Gordon Rothman)
- 06/14/99      "(MONDAY MYSTERIES) The Killer Next Door"- in 1979, Donald Miller, a graduate of Michigan State University who majored in criminal justice, was sentenced to 30 to 50 years for rape and attempted murder, but was suspected in the unsolved murders of four other local young women. In a highly unusual plea bargain, Miller agreed to work with police in trying to recover his memories of other murders. The deal -- if he was successful in remembering, Miller would plead guilty to manslaughter charges for the other murders and no additional time would be added to his sentence. After serving 20 years, Miller was up for parole and only the discovery that he had in his possession, while in prison, a strangulation device in the form of a shoelace, has kept from going free. Currently a bill which could keep serial predators locked up is before the Michigan legislature. (C: Erin Moriarty, Bill Lagattuta, Sr. P: Gavin Boyle - P: Loen Kelley, Laura Levin, Tanya Simon, Lisa Freed) (OAD: 01/07/99)
- 06/17/99      "Samantha's Choice"- Ten-year-old Samantha Frazer was abandoned at the age of five by an alcoholic and drug-dependent mother and has lived more than half her life in foster care. When Samantha's mother, Victoria, successfully underwent treatment for her addiction, a judge ordered that the child be reunited with her. Samantha, who wanted to remain with the family of her former therapist, Bonnie Gladu, went on network television and to the Delaware Supreme Court to plead her case. The Court handed down an unprecedented decision giving Samantha the right to go to family court and ask to live with the family of her choice. After spending two weeks with Victoria, Samantha changed her mind and told the court that she wanted to stay with her biological mother. (C: Erin Moriarty - Sr. P: Reid Collins, Jr. - P: Kate Boyle, Mary Sue Holland, Deirdre Cohen) (OAD: 11/05/98)
- 06/21/99      (MONDAY MYSTERIES) "My Daughter's Killer"- In 1986, 21-year-old Mitzi Nalley was brutally murdered in her Austin, Texas home. Police arrested Jonathan Wayne Nobles, who confessed to the crime and was sentenced to the death penalty. For more than a decade Mitzi's mother, Paula Kurland, tried to arrange a face-to-face confrontation with her daughter's killer, but Nobles refused until two weeks before his execution. 48 HOURS follows the preparation for the face-off, arranged by the Victim/Offender Mediation Dialogue division of the Texas Department of Criminal Justice, and includes an eyewitness account of the meeting. Also included is an interview with Jimmy Leland, a North Carolina man who does not want to forgive or forget his wife's killer (C: Bill Lagattuta, Troy Roberts - Sr. P: Al Briganti - P: Tom Forman, Peter Henderson) (OAD: 02/04/99)

48 HOURS (continued)

- 06/24/99      "Desperate Measures"- explores how ordinary people heal themselves in extraordinary ways, beyond conventional medicine. Broadcast includes reports on: Gene Egidio, an electrical splicer who has become an energy healer; Audrey Santo, who has been in a coma-like state for 12 years, but is believed to intercede with God on behalf of the sick; cancer patients who claim they have found a cure in 714x, a compound that has not been approved by oncologists; and Dr. Mitchell Gaynor, an oncologist who combines conventional treatment with sound therapy. (C: Bernard Goldberg, Erin Moriarty, Peter Van Sant, Susan Spencer - Sr. P: Peter Schweitzer - P: Patti Aronofsky, Josh Gelman, Peter Henderson, Paul Larosa)
- 06/28/99      "(MONDAY MYSTERIES) Never Forget"- focuses on Massachusetts State Police Sergeant Rick Nagle who started investigating cold case murder mysteries twelve years ago, including reports on: the murder in 1993 of 17-year-old Jennifer Mullin, considered an unsolvable case until Nagle found a thread from the victim's blouse which lead him to her killer, Bill Jewitt, a local kid with no criminal record; and the 22-year-old murder of teacher Ruth Masters, which remained unsolved until Nagle uncovered evidence linking Eric Anderson, a local handyman with a violent criminal record, to the murder scene. Anderson was formally charged by a grand jury and will stand trial later this year. (C: Bernard Goldberg, Troy Roberts - Sr. P: Peter Schweitzer - P: Paul Larosa, Josh Yager) (OAD: 02/18/99)

CBS RELIGIOUS SPECIAL

- 06/27/99      "Hear Every Voice"- an interfaith religious special focusing on TNT: Tying Nashville Together, an organization including more than 40 groups comprised of 40,000 citizens in metropolitan Nashville, who represent widely diverse nationalities and financial backgrounds. Feeling that most people had opinions on issues and public spending, TNT has created a citywide 'platform' of specific suggestions for political candidates to endorse that has met with notable success. (E.P.: John Blessington - P: Ted Holmes)

* * * *